When it was fully daylight, we all gave a big yell and charged right down into camp. The lodges were all a standing yet, and lots of Indians in them. ## BROWNLOW'S LETTER ON SUF-FRAGE.

I find myself called upon, by letter and through the newspapers, to define my position on the suffrage question, now being agitated throughout the ANOTHER VICTIM OF KERBENE.—A little daughter of Mr. Henry High, of Rowlesburg, aged 13, in the absence of the famity, undertook to make a fire duence those of any considerable numin the house. It did not burn fast the house of any consideration number of men, on this or any other question; and feertainly have no purpose to dictate to any of them, how they shall be commenced pouring it on bon oil and commenced pouring it on

In my judgment, the existing franchise has weak an absolute necessity to prevent the State from being thrown into anarchy, and to protect the loyal people thereof from being subjected to proscription, violence and murder or exite. On this account and with this view I have supported that measure, it I had the power, I would disfranchise for itself a standing which has made it cease to brevent the State from being thrown into anarchy, and to protect the loyal people thereof from being subjected to proscription, violence and murder or exite. On this account and with this view I have supported that measure, it I had the power, I would disfranchise for life, the active leaders who brought for its advocates those who have to thank for life, the active leaders who brought among those who are determined that for life, the active leaders who brought it for restored health and regained constituthe Treasury shall serve their speculative purposes; and accumulations of greenbacks are threatened, so as by disturbing trade, to raise a popular elamont against what the Secretary is doing. If there never was any reason for continuing in the course upon which Mr. Boutwell set out, this threat alone? Would it be right or wise to keep a thousand men under disabili their speculative purposes, now furnishes it; hence we hope that there is no danger that the Secretary will fall into the error which afflicted Mr. McCullough, of constantly trying to do something for setting to rights things that would adjust themselves if let alone.

It may be safely asserted that there are not upon the statute-books a half dozen laws of a political character enacted by Congress, since the so-called hem, even then, to fill the offices of the State with rebels, to its injury, because of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

There is still another view of this It is one of the merits of Republican administration that under it anything the safely asserted in any part of ballot, by its late decision, about may be safely asserted in any part of twenty thousand rebels, among whom were some of the active leaders of the war when the government was in the hands of the Democracy. Then in half the Union a man did not dare assert anything unfriendly to the divinity of slavery, under fear of hemp or tar and feathers.

The late Hiram Wood-ruff, of "trotting fame," was never without bottle in his stable. It is also used by Col. Bush, of the Jerome Park Course, at Fordham, N. It is warranted to cure Lameness, Sprains, Scratches, Brulses, Galls, Cuts, Wind Galls, Colic, Sore Throat, Nail in the Foot, and Over-Heating, when
